ARTICLE I – THE FIRST SPIRITUAL TEMPLE’S PRIMARY PURPOSE

The purpose of the First Spiritual Temple (aka the Temple; aka the Temple Society; aka the Society) is the establishment of a religious, spiritual, and educational community devoted to:

1. The vision of the founder of the Temple, Marcellus Seth Ayer (1839-1921), as laid out in his “Declaration of Principles” and “Constitution” to the Trustees of the First Spiritual Temple Trust and recorded under Deed of Trust, dated April 30, 1884, at Suffolk, Massachusetts, Registry of Deeds, Book 1675, Pages 401-403.
2. The promulgation of the Soul’s recognition of its immortality and the progressive development of its Divine attributes, powers, and potentials.
3. The advancement, expansion and awareness of the Soul and Spirit through Ancient and Modern Wisdom, Spiritualism, and the Healing Arts.
4. The promulgation of the unity and sanctity of all life; human, animal, plant, and mineral.

Said purpose shall be conducted through lectures, classes, seminars, development groups, meditation, Spirit communication, research, book clubs and other like-minded events, all for the practical work of self-culture; mentally, morally, physically, and spiritually.

ARTICLE II – MEMBERSHIP

Any person wishing to join the First Spiritual Temple, who is desirous of promulgating those basic principles - Liberty, Justice, and Charity - in their broadest sense, “but not such liberty as shall encroach in the least degree upon the rights and happiness of others”; having the good of Humanity at heart and being desirous of carrying out the “Articles of Faith and Guiding Principles” of this Temple, may become a member as stated in the following paragraphs.

The Board of Directors, acting by a majority of its members, shall decide upon the application.
